

IN THE COMMONWEALTH COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA

In Re* Nomination Petition of : Election Matter
Jessie BRADICA :
As Republican Candidate :
for the 61st Legislative District :

PETITION TO SET ASIDE NOMINATION PETITION

Petitioners Karen Colahan and Jennifer Costello, by and through counsel, respectfully aver as follows:

1. The Petitioners are duly qualified electors registered as Republicans in the 61st Legislative District.

2. The Respondent is the above referenced Republican Candidate for the General Assembly in the 61st Legislative District.

3. On or before March 28, 2022, the Candidate filed a Candidate Affidavit and Nomination Petitions with the Department of State. A copy is attached as Exhibit A.

4. For the reasons set forth in greater detail in the attached Exhibit B, the Candidate’s Nomination Petition fails to contain the required number of properly ascribed signatures.

5. The candidate has submitted 455 signature lines; 208 of these lines are challenged, including a massive number of lines in which someone other than the signer plainly filled in address information instead of the voter alone doing so as required by law. (See 25 P.S. § 2868: “Each signer of a nomination petition shall add his address where he is duly registered and enrolled, giving city, borough or township, with street and number, if any, and shall legibly print his name and add the date of signing, expressed in words or numbers.”)

6. Section 977 of the Election Code, 25 P.S. §2937, provides that a court shall set aside nomination petitions which are defective.

7. The Nomination Petition therefore fails to conform to the requirements of the Election Code, 25 P.S. §2867 et seq., and must be set aside and the Candidate’s name not be placed on, or stricken from, the ballot. Candidate has not submitted the requisite 300 valid signatures from registered Democrats in the district.

8. Petitioners respectfully reserve the right to add such additional objections as are appropriate at the time of hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
